Course Description

This course will serve as an introduction to the processes and expressive potential of printmaking; specifically, relief and intaglio printmaking. Emphasis will be on learning how to make prints, visual problem-solving, image making, and evaluation through personal and group critiques by analyzing artistic decisions.

Student Outcomes

- Identify, define and understand the formal elements of art and the principles of design.
- Demonstrate the ability to produce and present finished works of exhibition quality
- Produce and critique projects that coordinate descriptive and expressive possibilities of course media.
- Understand and gain sensitivity to materials and tools used throughout the semester
- Demonstrate the ability to critique work objectively
- Develop a vocabulary for the analysis and understanding of art
- Examine the creative process of other artists

Methods of Assessing Student Outcomes

Student outcomes may be assessed using the following:

- individual creative projects
- written critical responses
- critiques
- hands-on studio workdays/times
- gallery visits
- various assigned readings
- service learning projects
- presentations
- group and/or individual projects
- portfolios

Instructional Strategies

Prim Library Resources

Using the library's resources effectively (not just Internet resources) contributes to developing each of SNC's core themes by exposing students to high quality academic resources, diverse opinions, new ideas, and a future that includes building on a liberal arts education. In this course, you will be expected to utilize the library's resources (either on-site or remotely) as you complete your assignments.

Sanctions for Cheating and/or Plagiarism

The Honor Code

The faculty of SNC believes students must be held to high standards of integrity in all aspects of college life in order to promote the educational mission of the College and to encourage respect for the rights of others. Each student brings to the SNC community unique skills, talents, values and experiences which, when expressed within the community, contribute to the quality of the educational environment and the growth and development of the individual. Students share with members of the faculty, administration and staff the responsibility for creating and maintaining an environment conducive to learning and personal development, where actions are guided by mutual respect, integrity, responsibility and trust. The faculty and students alike must make diligent efforts to ensure high standards are upheld by their colleagues and peers as well as themselves. Therefore faculty and students accept responsibility for maintaining these standards at Sierra Nevada College and are obligated to comply with its regulations and procedures, which they are expected to read and understand.

Consequences of Violating the Student Honor Code

SNC students and faculty share the responsibility for maintaining an environment of academic honesty. Thus, all are responsible for knowing and abiding by the SNC Faculty/Student Honor Code published in the current SNC Catalog. Faculty are responsible for presenting the Honor Code and the consequences of violating it to students at the start of their classes AND for reporting all incidences of academic dishonesty to the Provost. Students are responsible for knowing what constitutes CHEATING, PLAGIARISM and FABRICATION and for refraining from these and other forms of academic dishonesty. Violations of the Honor Code become part of a student's academic record.

1st Offense: Student receives a zero for assignment/exam and counseling with faculty on the honor code, consequences for violating the honor code, and the value of academic honesty in learning.

2nd Offense: Student fails course and receives counseling with faculty on the honor code, consequences for violating the honor code, and the value of academic honesty in learning.

3rd Offense: Student is expelled.

Grading Policy

| | | |
|--------|---|--|
| 90–100 | A | Exceptionally fine work; superior in presentation, visual observation, comprehension and participation |
| 80–89 | B | Above average work. |
| 70–79 | C | Average work; good, unexceptional participation |

Introduction to Printmaking

| | | |
|----------|---|---|
| 60–69 | D | Below average work; noticeably weak with minimal participation |
| Below 60 | F | Clearly deficient in presentation, style and content with a lack of participation |

Critique expectations

Be in class on time, prepared with your work. For critique, all work must be pinned up within the first 5 minutes of the period. Work that is late will not be critiqued, and the student will receive a zero for critique participation. During critique, your contribution to a group is an essential part of the course student outcomes.

ADA Accommodations

In accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, students with a documented disability are eligible for support services and accommodations. If a student wishes to request an accommodation, please contact the Director of Academic Support Services, Henry Conover, at (775) 831-1314 x7534, hconover@sierranevada.edu, office in Prim Library: PL-304.

The SNC Email System

The SNC email system is the official communication vehicle among students, faculty members and administrative staff and is designed to protect the confidentiality of student information as required by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 Act (FERPA). Students should check their college email accounts daily during the school year.

Students have a right to forward their SNC e-mail to another e-mail account (for example, @hotmail or @gmail). However, confidentiality of student information protected by FERPA cannot be guaranteed for SNC e-mail forwarded to an outside vendor. Having email redirected does not absolve a student from the responsibilities associated with official communication sent to his or her SNC email account.
